

Are there special requirements for packaging?

In general terms, there are no specific additional packaging requirements driven by this legislation. However, the relevant health certificate under which the material is imported specifies certain packaging requirements, further details of which are listed in the governing regulations and which are also dealt with in the ISIA/EDMA guidance document.