

Does my facility require approval / registration?

If your facility or establishment handles, stores, or processes any animal by-products intended for export to the European Community, then you will need to be approved and/or registered by the competent authority of the member state or 3rd country of your establishment's location. Care must be taken to ensure that the facility is listed in the appropriate section(s) under TRACES.