

INTERNATIONAL SERUM INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION

Rick Paniccia

President, Atlas Biologicals

Rick has 35+ years of success in building strong businesses with a proven track record in building strong key customer relationships, product commercialization knowledge, operational controls, and quality systems.

He has implemented best practices regarding regulatory compliance.

He is the owner and president of Atlas Biologicals which specializes in bovine sera. He oversees all business functions relating to raw materials, components, and finished products including procurement, materials management, manufacturing, quality assurance, quality control, and regulatory affairs.