

Andres Monroy
Founder & CEO, Ambioxera Pty Ltd

Mr. Monroy a wealth of experience and expertise in quality management, strategic leadership, and operational excellence to the table. With a dynamic background spanning various sectors including biotechnology, healthcare, and manufacturing, he has consistently demonstrated a commitment to driving organizational success through innovation, collaboration, and thorough attention to detail.

As the Chief Executive Officer and founder of Ambioxera Pty Ltd, Mr. Monroy exemplifies visionary leadership, spearheading the company's strategic direction while fostering a culture of continuous improvement and customer-centricity. His track record of effectively navigating complex regulatory landscapes and ensuring adherence to stringent quality standards underscores his dedication to excellence in every aspect of business operations. He is playing a pivotal role in shaping the company's trajectory by developing and implementing strategic initiatives that drive growth and sustainability.

With a Master's degree in Applied Science with an emphasis in Biotechnology and an MBA with a focus on General Management and more than 10 years of experience in the serum industry, Mr. Monroy possesses a unique blend of technical expertise and business acumen. His bilingual proficiency in Spanish and English further enhances his ability to connect with diverse stakeholders and navigate global business landscapes with ease.